

Samples of low volume fabrics

You can also use tone on tones of various shades as well as varying shades of solids. The background fabrics used should be light in colors that will help support and define the block designs.

